

Wedding Smudging Ritual

(Facing the guests while turning around to couple)

I ask this space to be cleansed from the past Bringing peace and perfect harmony as we move forward
Celebrating these two souls coming together in partnership.

(Facing couple)

May they find unity within
Cleansing their auras as they exchange vows.
May their spirits become like new,
Freeing them from the weight of past choices
And carry nothing but love, friendship, and grace into this union.

May they be grateful for the blessings
Continuously manifesting in health, endless love,
Forgiveness, and an abundance of happiness.
With intention, love and light their hearts are made bright,
Full and complete they move forward together.
